1.Purpose;

A constructive relationship between the school and parents is key to ensuring that the student’s well-being is at the core of an effective educational experience. It is beneficial for both parties, the schools and the parents, if these constructive relationships are based on agreed terms and conditions set out clearly in this contract. Parents are required to read this document carefully to ensure that bothl parties in this relationship are aware of their duties and responsibilities. The terms and conditions stipulated in this contract are a reference for dispute resolution. This contract is the sole reference for SPEA to resolve any dispute between the school and the parents. It supersedes all prior or subsequent agreements, and understandings between both parties including school policies which may conflict with its clauses.

2.Definitions:

- Authority or SPEA: Sharjah Private Education Authority
- Contract: this document.
- Parent: both parents of the child when both have the legal standing of guardians or are the legal guardian by court order.
- Policies: the principles, guidelines and/or rules adopted by a school and shared with all stakeholders for the purpose of achieving specific objectives. These objectives could be related to any issue pertaining to the operation of the school, such as academics, health and safety or students’ behaviour.

3.Admissions Approval/Cancellation/TC and Long Leave;

Parents are expected to provide & upload all medical, psychological, or educational assessments or reports before entry to the school. Such materials are essential in enabling us to provide the best education for your child. Failure to disclose any such information, including the deliberate withholding of information, may result in your child not making the expected progress in school. Admissions can be declined or rejected at the time of the entry test or interview, as well as after admission, in case of rejection/denial from the approving authority or if the student is found to have SEN (Special Educational Needs) disorders or disabilities for which the school is not licensed or unable to provide appropriate accommodations.

The student is not permitted to skip any term of the academic year. However, parents may apply for long leave in unavoidable circumstances, and they will be obligated to pay the school fee for the specified period. Alternatively, if they choose not to apply for leave, they should request a Transfer Certificate (TC). If a student remains absent without prior approval from the school,his/her name will be withdrawn or struck off the roll. In both scenarios, if parents wish for their child to rejoin the school within the same academic year, the readmission process will be followed. Admission will be granted if a seat is available in the same grade. Seats can be reserved in the case of long leave, but not in the case of TC and NSO.

In case the transport service is suspended during the academic year by the parents, it can only resume if the service and seat are available in that particular area. Otherwise, parents must make their own arrangements. Consequently, parents should refrain from applying for temporary suspension of the transport service during the session.

4.Curriculum and educational programmes;

The school follows Pakistani National Curriculum (FBISE) at senior grades from Grade IX to XII and as such adhere to all the rules and regulations of FBISE Pakistan for all the national subjects while from KG to Grade VIII, the school follows an internationally aligned curriculum for core subjects and Ministry of Education subjects are mandatory for the grades both the senior and junior grades.

5.Assessment /Exams/Tests;

Evaluation and analysis of student's attainment and progress are done in the following ways at Pamir Private School;

Diagnostic Tests/Admission Test.

These can also be labelled as “pre-assessments”. They are conducted in all grades at the time of admission to establish a baseline or a reference or starting point for the teachers.

Formative Assessment.

It is an “assessment for learning”. Topics covered in class are frequently tested in several ways by the teachers in the form of quizzes, oral and written tasks, problem-solving worksheets, moreover students’ performance in Monthly Tests, P.E grades, Behaviour grades/marks and specific subject specific areas of assessment are also part of the formative assessment. etc.

Summative Assessment.

It is an “assessment of learning”. It is done to make final judgments about students’ achievement and instructional effectiveness. Summative Assessment is considered an endpoint that sums up the performance or learning level of achievement of the students in any particular grade.

National/International and Benchmark Tests.

External assessments occur less frequently than internal assessments, but they usually have greater importance, more authority, and higher stakes attached to them. External assessments like FBISE, PISA, TIMSS, CAT-4, and any approved benchmark have been used in PPS as indicators of both the educational achievement of students and the quality of instruction in the school. Parents are required to ensure their child's participation in all mandatory tests announced by the competent authorities; furthermore, they are obligated to cover the associated test fees.

Pre-Registration & Pre-Admissions Exam.

These Test/Exams are arranged for the Senior Grades. Students from Garde IX to XII are required to qualify these exams as per school policy for registration with FBISE and Admissions for External Exams.

Pre-Board Exam.

These Test/Exams are arranged for the Senior Grades from IX to XII to prepare them for the External FBISE National Exams.
